JAZZ IS DEAD

Following a sellout show last year, JAZZ IS DEAD returns to Venue 505 in Surry Hills as part of SIMA's Summer Jazz with three exciting young combos, all pushing the boundaries of the broad genre of jazz.

OLIVER THORPE

Jazz is Dead will showcase the first artistic offering from Sydney guitarist/vocalist Oliver Thorpe. A collective formed through the mutual appreciation of rock and of roll, the group features local heavy weights Miles "Cannonball" Thomas on drums and cymbals and Brendan Clark on bass and effects. This will be the debut performance for this new group after many hours of honing their skills both in the shed and out.

SCOREDATURA

Since the release of their debut album "Tense," Scoredataura has been turning heads, and hurting necks with their unique version of Heavy Metal Jazz. It's...Guitar shredding, pedal treading, volume knob turning, guitar pick burning, riffs a-blazing, head shaking, cymbal bashing, string thrashing, attempted djenting, David Breting, gain waving, head banging, Pj's hair ranging, drop D tuning, Olie Thorpe mooning, ear-plug needing, Cam Undy pleading, harmonics screamin', tell 'im he's dreamin', finger tapping, string snapping, eyes spinning, Carl Wang winning, jazz fans offending, SIMA will be firing... you get the idea.

AKA BAZ

Formed by National Jazz Award winner, Aaron (BAZ) Flower in 2005 and has had released two albums. The latest being Memento Mori which was released in Nov 2015 through Yum Yum Tree Records. On this record Aaron has collaborated with some of Australia's top singer songwriters and musicians and created a truly unique piece of work.
